

Volunteer Opportunities

The Family Violence Prevention Center is able to thrive because of the kind support of our volunteers. FVPC relies on volunteers to help fulfill daily, weekly and monthly tasks of the organization. FVPC is currently in need of volunteers to help in both direct and indirect service capacities. Whether you are interested in children, cooking or clerical work, FVPC has the volunteer opportunity for you! Current needs include the following...

Childcare Volunteer to provide childcare services to children both living in the housing program and in outreach programs.

Clerical Support to provide clerical assistance including copying, data entry and answering phones in the administrative office when needed.

Kitchen Assistant prepares, serves, and cleans up for lunch and dinner in our shelter.

Tutoring provides educational assistance to children in various subject areas.

Donation Coordinator sorts, organizes and stores in-kind donations that come into the center.

Grounds Keeper maintains the exterior of the facility including trash pick up, weeding, gardening and other care for flower beds.

On Call Moving Team assists with picking up household items being donated to FVPC and delivery of items to clients' new homes.

Cleaning Support helps with deep cleaning residential rooms as clients exit the FVPC safe housing program.

Crisis Hotline Office Support assists with duties of house managers including answering the 24 hour crisis hotline, monitoring the security system and tending to the needs of residential clients. This position requires a degree in social work, sociology, psychology or a related field.

If you are interested in helping FVPC with any of these volunteer opportunities, please contact Megan Marrinan, Development Associate at (937) 376-8526 or e-mail us at megan.marrinan@fvpcgc.org.
