2:00 – 6:00 PM
Admission $10
Tickets: 937-426-6535

Corner of First and Middle Streets, Fairborn
Map Location #1

The Mercer-Smith house, the oldest house in Fairborn, was built on its original site, circa 1799. The volunteers at the historical park continue to work hard to restore it to the year 1812. Monthly programs are scheduled throughout the year. Join us to see how folks celebrated Christmas in early Fairfield!

1614 Applewood Drive, Beavercreek
Map Location #2

Owned by Steve and Sandra Swanson, this lovely Cape Cod was built in 1993. Let the long inviting porch invite you into a beautifully decorated home. A real experience of Holiday Cheer!

2490 Stewart Road, Xenia
Map Location #3

Nestled deep in the woods, the Dixon Homestead is one of nine homes built around the original Mead Hunting Lodge. Built in 1989, this home's open floor plan and great room provide the ideal location to enjoy the fireplace while watching the deer! Five exquisitely decorated Christmas trees will be on display throughout this lovely home.

219 West Xenia Drive, Fairborn
Map Location #5

Mill Pond Acre Bed & Breakfast, Fairborn's only downtown B&B, is owned and operated by Debbie Downes. The main dwelling, built in 1920, was the home of O.B. Armstrong and his wife, Inez, and son George at the site of the first grist mill to operate in Fairborn. Mill Pond Acre is located within walking distance to all the shops and cafes of Fairborn.

102 West 2nd Street, Xenia
Map Location #4

The majestic Hollencamp House, built circa 1865, is owned by Bernie Begley. The first owners were the Hollencamp Brothers Brewery (located directly behind house). Other previous owners were Charles Darlington of The Hooven & Allison Company and Dr. Richard Miller. The house has been lovingly restored and will feature vintage Christmas decorations.

PURPLE RIBBON TOUR OF HOMES

The Family Violence Prevention Center's Purple Ribbon Tour of Homes offers a rare opportunity to enter some of Greene County's finest and most unique locations to admire special furnishings and holiday décor.

Admission is $10 per person. Call 937-426-6535 for reservations/payment, or to obtain more information about the tour. Cash/Check, Visa and MasterCard are accepted.

On the day of the tour, begin at any one of the homes. You will be greeted by your hosts and a Family Violence Prevention Center volunteer, who will provide you with a purple ribbon to wear, granting you admission to all homes on the tour.
